

David Warfield, who, after eight years as somebody else, is again himself as Herr von Barwig.

Photo by Moffett

Jane Cooper, Mr. Warfield's new leading woman, who plays appealingly the role of Helen Stanton.

Photo by Moffett

Two Davids—Warfield and Belasco—Bring Back "The Music Master" to Slay Mammon's Goliath, Cynicism.

Photos by White.

Music Lessons? Ach! Octavie and Charlotte want to learn to play "Pretty Baby" on the piano. And Herr von Barwig should teach them? Ach!

Von Barwig sees in Helen Stanton, a striking resemblance of his wife, stolen from him sixteen years before by a false friend. Helen is his lost daughter.

Von Barwig bestows his blessing on his daughter, who does not know her real father, and Beverly Cruger (Griffith Lusk) the man she is soon to marry.

Helen's Real Father chooses to keep on posing as her music teacher because he believes she is happy with her wealthy, supposed father, the traitorous friend.